MEDIA ALERT: Daily Public Programs Returning After a Year Hiatus

Lakeland, Florida – Daily public programs stopped at Explorations V Children's Museum over a year ago and will return with thoughtful modifications April 1, 2021. Educators will present specially developed hands-on programs within the Museum's SAFE + KIND COVID-19 Guidelines. Space will be limited. Guests will sign up for available spaces when they check-in at the front desk. Programs are free for members and included with general admission.

SAFE + KIND GUIDELINES FOR DAILY PROGRAMS:

- Reservations preferred and walk-ins accepted unless program is at capacity.
- Stations set up 6 feet apart.
- Individual materials at each station.
- All stations sanitized before and after program entry.
- Hand washing prior to program entry.
